

Type of Funding	What is funded?	What are the expected outcomes for the young people?	Funding Stream	Who can be funded?	How can I apply?	What is the total value of the fund for the 2018/2019 financial year?	What level of funding is available per application?	When do applications open and close for the 2018/2019 financial year?	When will results be known?
Positive Youth Development Promotion	Youth Development Opportunities This funding supports youth development projects that have a focus on delivery through leadership, mentoring, volunteering and/or wellbeing opportunities.	Increased wellbeing and resilience : this refers to increasing those attributes or strengths that support young people to deal with adversity or change and to thrive as individuals. Those attributes or strengths include a young person having: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • confidence • connection • character Increased skills and capability : this refers to increasing those competencies or skills that support young people to thrive at home, at school, at work or in their community. Those competencies or skills include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • critically thinking • decision making • communication • taking responsibility for themselves • caring for others • participating and contributing 	YOUTH DEVELOPMENT - PROGRAMMES & SERVICES FUND	This funds organisations to support the delivery of youth development opportunities	Submit applications through the Youth Development - Programmes and Services Funding Application Form	There is around $1 million worth of funding to be distributed across these two funding streams	$10,000 to $100,000
			YOUTH DEVELOPMENT - OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG PEOPLE FUND	This funds young people and organisations to support the delivery of youth-led youth development opportunities	Submit applications through the Youth Development - Opportunity for Young People Funding Application Form		$5,000 to $30,000
Expanding Youth Enterprise and Education	Youth Enterprise Opportunities This funding supports youth development projects that have a focus on delivering business, enterprise and information and digital technology education and skills development.	Increased preparedness for the future work environment through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • entrepreneurial skills • business and financial acumen • information technology and digital skills • employment opportunities • leadership skills • career aspirations • educational attainment In addition to increased wellbeing and resilience and increased skills and capability (as described above).	YOUTH ENTERPRISE - PROGRAMMES & SERVICES FUND	This funds organisations to support the delivery of business, enterprise, information and digital technology education and skills development opportunities to young people.	Submit applications through the Youth Enterprise - Programmes and Services Funding Application Form	There is around $1 million worth of funding to be distributed across these two funding streams	$10,000 to $100,000	Applications are open between 31 May 2018 and 2 July 2018	Applicants should be notified of the results of their application by the end of August 2018
			YOUTH ENTERPRISE - OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG PEOPLE FUND	This funds young people to support the development of a new and/or innovative business/enterprise project or idea.	Submit applications through the Youth Enterprise - Opportunity for Young People Funding Application Form		$5,000 to $30,000		