

Archie Crayford

“I signed up to be a Youth MP because I believe that young people are so affected by politics and government policy and yet have such a small say. Programmes like this are great because they give youth a place to be heard and to understand the inner workings of government. As a Youth MP I want to focus on youth crime and advocate for a more rehabilitative approach to youth justice.”

Selecting MP: Hon David Parker

Location: Auckland