

Hunter McKay Fairfax Heath

“I applied to be a Youth MP because Youth Parliament is a unique opportunity to connect with other young Kiwis from all across Aotearoa, share ideas, and learn from different viewpoints. I believe that when we come together to discuss and debate, we can create real, meaningful, and positive change for our communities and country. Through my involvement in Youth Parliament, I hope to share the perspectives of youth – the next generation – with the decision-makers. Youth Parliament allows all of us, my wider community of young Kiwis, to come together and ensure our outcomes and our views are considered when policies are made that will shape our future.”
