

Aroa Al Masri

“I applied to be a Youth MP because I’m passionate about representing minority voices and ensuring that decisions impacting young people are made with them, not for them. Too often, youth are overlooked in decision-making processes, leaving our unique perspectives and challenges unaddressed.”

Selecting MP: Tim Costley

Location: Wellington