“I applied to be a Youth MP because I’m passionate about giving young people a voice in decisions that affect us. Growing up in West Auckland, I’ve seen firsthand the potential of our youth. I care about education and creating more opportunities for youth in our community. Being part of Youth Parliament is a chance to speak up on these issues, learn how government works, and make a real difference. I want to inspire others to get involved and show that our generation has ideas worth listening to. Plus, I’m excited to connect with like-minded young leaders and bring fresh perspectives to the table.”
