“I applied to be a Youth MP because youth voices are underheard and undervalued in politics. I want to be a part of changing the mindset that just because someone is young that their voice doesn't have value when it comes to changing things here in Aotearoa. Another reason I applied is because I believe that Aotearoa should be made a more comfortable and safe place for more people to live and thrive as they wish no matter who they are or where they come from.”
