

Jasper Rhodes

“My interest in Youth Parliament stems from a profound sense of care for my community and our generation. Young people are affected by parliamentary decisions, yet we’re excluded from political discourse. Meaningful change stems from having our voices heard - this is an opportunity to contribute to those discussions and learn about the parliamentary process.”

Selecting MP: David MacLeod

Location: New Plymouth