

Matthew Debreceny

“I applied to become a Youth MP to advocate for a better world for youth and future generations. The decisions made in Parliament impact young people the most, yet despite this, we often have very little say in these decisions. As a Youth MP, I wish to fiercely advocate for young people in Aotearoa and for the communities I call my own.”

Selecting MP: Benjamin Doyle

Location: Wellington