

Mikaela Renner

“I applied to be a Youth MP because I think it is essential to create an environment within communities where youth voices are valued and promoted as well as engaging in political discussions that will aid my knowledge of Parliament and its processes. I applied to learn how to make a difference; to create change, and to understand the fundamental ideas of the public sector.”

Selecting MP: Hon Brooke van Velden

Location: Auckland