

Ryan Higgins

“I applied to be a Youth MP as it provides a great opportunity to represent the people of my community and represent issues important to them. It is also a great chance to work closely with other like-minded people and help others understand the importance of the Parliamentary system.”

Selecting MP: Hon Judith Collins

Location: Auckland